

Avery, Ward's Chairman, Quits

Directors Name Barr Successor

Financial Circles Say Avery Planned To Quit His Post

CHICAGO (AP)—Sewell L. Avery, 81, resigned today as chairman of Montgomery Ward and Co., along with the firm's president who helped fight off Louis E. Wolfson's drive to capture control of the mail order house.

Edmund A. Krider, 42, Ward president who trouped the country to line up shareholders behind the Avery management, resigned and pledged "my full support" to John A. Barr, 47, who was named to succeed Avery as chairman of the board and chairman of the executive committee.

Krider had been with the company since 1945 and president since 1952. Barr, vice president and secretary, conducted part of the historic April 22 stockholders' meeting in Avery's place.

The retiring president called Barr an "excellent choice for chairman and with his leadership Montgomery Ward is assured an excellent future of growth, prosperity and service to the business community." No successor to Krider was named.

Remains Director

Avery will remain a director of the company. He is one of the candidates on the management slate of directors for reelection. Votes taken at the stockholders' meeting April 22 are being counted and tabulated.

Financial circles reported Avery had planned to retire as chairman some time ago but that when Wolfson, New York and Florida financier, made public his plan to seek control of the firm Avery stayed on to lead the management fight.

Avery had headed the firm, second only to Sears Roebuck & Co., in the mail order and retail field, since 1931 when J. P. Morgan & Co., put him in control to save the concern from going under in the depression.

During Avery's regime four Ward presidents and about 40 vice presidents had been fired or quit.

No Comment

Avery had no immediate comment on his resignation which was announced in a statement issued by the Ward board of directors after a special meeting.

The directors adopted a resolution recording their "profound appreciation for the prudent leadership which Mr. Sewell Avery has given the company during his long tenure and for the sound financial condition which the company has enjoyed during his devoted and dynamic administration."

Barr has been a member of the Ward directorate since 1950.

Early in his campaign to seize control of the mail order house Wolfson announced he would capture enough directors to wrest management from the hands of Avery and his group. He campaigned from coast to coast and the Avery forces followed suit.

Admits Defeat

At the April 22 meeting of Ward stockholders in Medinah Temple, Chicago, Wolfson conceded he had failed to capture a majority of the nine-member board. The counting of shareholders' votes is continuing with indications that Wolfson seated two directors, with a third in doubt.

Barr, 47, was in the thick of the controversy between Ward's management and Wolfson for control of the company. He has been general counsel and has handled Ward's labor relations.

Through Barr's efforts a strike by the AFL Teamsters Union was averted during the middle of the proxy fight. At the annual meeting Barr took over for Avery and did most of the running of the meeting.

Barr was born and reared on a farm near Alton, Ill., a town with less than 1,000 population. He attended De Pauw University, where he helped himself through as a waiter in a restaurant.

Before graduating from De Pauw, he switched to Indiana University, where he obtained his law degree. He was a waiter in a sorority house while at Indiana and also raised some cash as a student librarian.

After practicing law in Gary, Ind., Barr joined Ward's as an attorney in 1933. He was named assistant secretary in 1936 and became vice president in 1946.

57-Day-Old Railroad Strike Comes to End

Unsettled Issues to A Referee

L. & N. Tieup Is Longest Since 1922; 29,000 Affected

WASHINGTON (AP)—An agreement was reached today calling for an end to the stormy, 57-day Louisville & Nashville railroad strike at 5 a. m. (CST) Wednesday.

The union representatives and management negotiators were in separate rooms. Government mediators shuttled back and forth for signatures to a series of documents that called for ending the strike and submitting unsettled issues to arbitration.

A formal government announcement of the strike-end agreement was made at 11:45 a. m. (CST).

The agreement calls for submitting key, unsettled issues to a neutral referee for a binding arbitration decision.

The strike, marked at times by violence, had crippled rail service in 14 southern states for nearly two months. It was the longest rail strike since 1922.

The strike affected 29,000 employees.

Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. of the National Mediation Board announced the agreement for an end to the strike in this statement:

"The National Mediation Board, at long last, is pleased to announce that an agreement has been reached between the Louisville & Nashville railroad, affiliated railroads and all unions which have been on strike.

"The dispute with the nonoperating organizations is to be submitted to a neutral referee whose decision will be final and binding.

"All employees are to return to service and full operations resumed on Wednesday, May 11. In the interim the roads will take steps to prepare for full operation."

Elbe Yanks Get Gilt-Edged Treatment in Red Moscow

MOSCOW (AP)—The reunion of Russian and U. S. veterans of the 1945 Soviet-American linkup at the Elbe river got underway today with a post-midnight airport reception and a banquet of caviar, steak and vodka.

The nine American veterans of World War II arrived by plane shortly after midnight for a five-day stay as guests of the Soviet Union.

Col. Ezeny Porfaniev, chairman of the welcoming committee, greeted them at the airport as "Our friends, our comrades-in-arms who fought against Fascism!"

Murray Schulman of Queens Village, N. Y., replied: "We sincerely appreciate your welcome and we, too, hope it will be a happy stay."

Movie, television and still cameras recorded the arrival of the Americans. They had flown via Paris to Prague, where a twin-engine Soviet airliner picked them up. The visit is being given wide publicity in the Soviet Union.

The visit stemmed from an open letter from the group's leader, Joseph Polowsky of Chicago, Ill., to Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin inviting Russian veterans of the linkup to a reunion in Washington.

And Did They Have Fun....!

The children were transported into town via the organization's famous locomotive and box car, treated to a picnic lunch in the American Legion hall, given $1 each to spend shopping and were movie guests of William Rhodes, manager of the Dixon theatre. The children were returned to the orphanage via the locomotive and box car.

Nation Awaiting Safety Check on Polio Serum

Illinois 'Second Shot' Supply Not Delivered

The government has urged that the nation's polio vaccination program be held up for at least a few more days while federal health authorities make a new safety check.

The announcement was made by U.S. Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele, and Dr. Ronald R. Cross, Illinois state health director, said the state will halt its polio vaccinations until the federal government clears the Salk vaccine.

A spokesman for the Illinois Health Department said no supply of vaccine for second shots to be given to first and second graders has been received.

Will Help

Dr. Cross said he is sure the one shot given to more than 350,000 Illinois school children without a hitch will do some good.

Scheele has voiced confidence five laboratories now turning out the Salk serum will get a clean bill of health. He says the vaccine is every bit as safe and effective as originally announced.

He assured parents whose children have been vaccinated that "in the very best judgment of the Public Health Service they have no cause for alarm."

Most states seemed disposed to follow Scheele's recommendations. But in Michigan, Health Commissioner Albert Heustis said that state's program will continue unless there is a "direct order" not to do so.

"We have ample evidence that the vaccine we have used is safe and effective," he said.

Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which is financing the free school program, declined to comment on Scheele's statement until he had had a chance to study it.

Scheele's announcement included a report that the number of children developing polio after vaccination had risen to 52, with 50 of the cases paralytic. The surgeon general said 44 of the children had been inoculated with vaccine

Five Dixon Area Residents Injured in 2 Auto Crashes

Five Dixon area residents today are listed as in "good" condition in Dixon KSB hospital as a result of injuries they received in a three-car crash Saturday and in a single-car mishap early Sunday.

The injured and the extent of their injuries:

Mrs. Olive Lafferty, 47, Sterling, received knee, forehead and thumb injuries.

Mrs. Ruth Johnson, 35, Sterling, received a back injury.

Mary Jane Munson, 22, Rock Falls, received facial and nose injuries.

Charles Geiger, 26, 1821 W. Ninth St., Dixon, received head and arm injuries.

Daniel Cibu, 18, Rt. 3, Dixon, received a possible fractured jaw.

Charge Driver

Geiger, who was one of the drivers in the three-car smash-up Saturday, was charged with reckless driving today by State's Atty. James Bales.

According to Sheriff John Stouffer, the mishap occurred about 2:30 p.m. at a T-intersection three miles west of Dixon on the Rock Island blacktop.

A car driven by Anita Atkinson, 25, 305 E. Seventh St., Dixon, was traveling west and had slowed down to make a left turn. She reportedly signalled her intention but had almost stopped while waiting for an eastbound vehicle, driven by Mrs. Lafferty, to pass the intersection.

The mishap occurred when Geiger's westbound car came onto the scene from a hill and was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the halted Atkinson vehicle. Stouffer said that Geiger's skid marks measured 291 feet.

Rams Rear

Geiger's car rammed the Atkinson vehicle in the rear and knocked it 90 feet from the point of impact. Meanwhile, Geiger's car glanced off the Atkinson vehicle and directly into the path of the Lafferty car.

Stouffer reported that all three cars were "badly" damaged. Mrs. Johnson and Miss Munson were passengers in the Lafferty auto. All three are employed at Dixon KSB hospital.

Five Dixon youths miraculously escaped serious injury early Sunday when the car in which they were riding rolled over on a Rt. 26 curve.

The driver, Cibu, received only minor injuries. Stouffer said the car, owned by C. Brockwell, Dixon, was a "total loss." He added that every window in the car was shattered.

Cibu and his four companions, William Boos, 19; Berle Stonecipher, 16; Robert Willard, 19; and Gene Goral, 18, reportedly were returning from a dance at Spring Valley. The mishap occurred at 3:15 a.m. about three miles south of Dixon.

The youths told Stouffer that Cibu lost control of the vehicle while coming out of a curve.

NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—The bright and shining scheme to revive bus service here has failed and, at latest reports, there is no new plan to take its place.

Ralph Richie, executive manager of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce was in the thick of the fray to keep the bus line alive. He wants to explain how the bud began to bloom and then died. Here's his letter:

To the Citizens of Dixon:

In February Larry Canfield, operator of the now defunct Dixon Transit Co., came to the Chamber of Commerce office and announced that the Dixon Transit Co. had been operating at a loss and that they were going to quit running buses in Dixon. We asked him to reconsider and at least give us time to see if we could help. A series of meetings were held, but no tangible plans could be worked out. When the creditors of the Dixon Transit Co. forced it into bankruptcy, it was the end of bus service in Dixon.

Perhaps we should have let it die and forgotten it, but we felt that Dixon needed and wanted bus service, so we continued to search for a solution. Our beliefs were upheld by hundreds of phone calls, letters and petitions from the citizens and we became determined to exhaust every effort to revive bus service in Dixon.

When Mr. Lutes and Mr. Curry came to our office and said that they would like to operate a bus line in Dixon, we welcomed them and pledged our support. They informed us that it would be a tight financial squeeze for them, but they thought they could make it. If we could help by an advance sale of tickets. At the time they anticipated no trouble in obtaining the assets of the Dixon Transit Co. or the Illinois Commerce Commission's requirements.

You, the people, responded and purchased over $900 worth of tickets in advance.

We were all set to go, when everything turned against us. The assets of the Dixon Transit Co. were sold to another firm and the newly formed Dixon Bus Co. said it couldn't operate without them. This didn't stop us. We contacted the Milwaukee firm that had purchased the assets and persuaded them to sell them to the Dixon Bus Co., so Dixon would have bus service. They agreed. The Illinois Commerce Commission chairman was contacted and said a temporary permit would be granted. This permit was issued, but before they could operate they must pass the inspection and meet the specifications of the bus division of the I.C.C. We anticipated no trouble here and once again we were all set to start service on Thursday morning.

We were wrong, because here and only here did we hit problems that couldn't be overcome.

The bus division of the I.C.C. didn't give just a routine stamp or approval, but made a thorough investigation. They learned that Mr. Curry and Mr. Lutes were too short of investment capital to maintain bus service long enough to give the citizens of Dixon fair value for the advance tickets sold. Mr. Curry and Mr. Lutes admitted this was true and decided not to operate in Dixon.

Our next step was to once again try and get someone to pick up where they quit, but no one is interested, so Dixon is still without bus service.

We are sorry that present efforts have failed, but we pledge our support to any one or any scheme that will give Dixon bus service.

Sincerely,
DIXON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
RALPH M. RICHIE,
Executive Manager

Spring Concert Has Sad Note Oregon School's Choral Director to Retire Soon

By LILA HEYERMAN
Telegraph Correspondent
OREGON—(Special)—A note of sadness was heard in the annual spring concert of the choruses of Oregon Community high school Friday night.

The girls in their pastel formals and the boys in their best suits formed a pretty picture as always, but the concert was the finale for Vivian Holmes, for 25 years director of choral music at the high school.

At the end of this school year, Miss Holmes will retire. She will continue to take an active interest in music. She is choir director of the Methodist church, and will do private teaching. She will continue to live at 404 N. 5th St., Oregon.

There wasn't a dry eye in the audience or the 132-voice chorus as the students sang the closing number of the concert. The concert, with the theme, "I Hear America Singing," included songs of religious faith, folklore and humor.

Near the end of the program, Miss Holmes was presented with a gift by R. L. Kiest on behalf of the board of education and the school. Miss Holmes was born in Paris, Ark., and attended Galloway College, the University of Arkansas and the American Conservatory of Music. She taught music in Arkansas and southern Illinois for 12 years before coming to Oregon in 1930. She taught both orchestra and chorus in the grade school and high school here, but two years ago she resigned her grade school position to concentrate on high school work.

Miss Holmes says she now will cook, sew, work in the garden and do all the things she had wanted to do and has never had time for.

The Ogle Homemaker

You Buy Pleasure With Money; Don't Waste It

Specialist Says Use Your Things and Enjoy Them

By HARRIETT E. HUTCHINGS
Ogle County Home Adviser

OREGON—(Special)—"If you don't spend your money today, you can spend it tomorrow. If you waste (don't spend) your time today, you can't spend it tomorrow." So said Dr. Cleo Fitzsimmons, home management specialist from Purdue University. Dr. Fitzsimmons, in her talk to all Illinois home advisers at our conference last week, cautioned us to put our time to good use so that we can increase our satisfactions or happiness.

She also told us that being economical is not going without something—it's getting something that gives you a maximum of satisfaction. For example, it might be more economical for you to buy a television set instead of going without one or spending your money for an automatic clothes dryer.

If you don't mind having to hang up the family wash and if you and your family would get more hours of pleasure from a TV set than perhaps the TV set should be your logical purchase.

Why? Because you would be getting more happiness or satisfaction in return for the money you spent.

Dr. Fitzsimmons urged us to encourage homemakers to use the things they have instead of hoarding them. Do you only use your prettiest linens, embroidered pillow cases, favorite aprons, etc., when company comes?

If you do, you are not getting the most satisfaction from them that you could get, and neither is your family.

The old adage, "Use your best and you'll always have your best," should be adhered to more often.

I am not going to say that we should always do this and never keep our especially nice things for special occasions.

So let's not keep so many things hoarded for tomorrow—remember we're living today!

Dr. Fitzsimmons also stressed that we and our families would increase our satisfactions if we would spend more money for things which we will use a lot instead of for things that will seldom be used. Do you think she's right?

Bacteria and You
Dr. Marsh, university extension food technologist, told those of us attending the home adviser's conference that there is danger in being too clean and sanitary.

He said that there has been an amazing increase of yeast infections in the elementary canal of babies due to too much bacteria-free milk and canned baby foods. We aren't giving our children a chance to develop resistance to harmful bacteria according to Dr. Marsh.

He said that we should be wary of using toothpastes containing anti-biotics.

By using them we are destroying the natural bacteria ratio in our mouths. This has caused an increase in many throat and alimentary tracts yeast infections in both adults and children.

Dr. Marsh gave some suggestions which all of us should heed when we got on a picnic.

Your car, because of its warmth, is a good incubator for the bacteria in the food you take on your picnic. All food contains bacteria and under favorable conditions of temperature and moisture bacteria will double in number every 20 minutes.

This means that if you started on your picnic with 100 bacteria in your potato salad in four hours you would have over 350,000 if conditions were favorable.

This could easily happen because we often do not eat for this period of time.

In order to prevent these bacteria from multiplying we can do either of two simple and inexpensive things.

Pack your food in a cardboard carton. Then either roll up ice cubes from your refrigerator in newspapers or buy about 15 cents worth of dry ice. Put either of these in the box with your food and seal the box to prevent warm air from entering it.

I'm sure you'd feel this was worth while if you've ever had a touch of food poisoning caused from food that was spoiled.

Bombing Won't Halt Clean-Up

Blame Gamblers for Wrecking of Auto

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Police Commissioner Russell T. Beebe says he won't let what he terms a "lay off" bombing of his car stop his drive against gambling.

No one was injured in the blast which wrecked Beebe's car and blew out three windows in his home Saturday.

The bombing came three days after Beebe led a raid against what the St. Louis Post-Dispatch called the headquarters of Frank (Buster) Wortman and Elmer (Dutch) Dowling, who the newspaper said "have taken control of the $500,000-a-week growing baseball betting business in the St. Louis area by intimidation of operators of gambling establishments."

Plan Meeting

Beebe said he will hold a top-level meeting today with Maj. James Thompson, head of the St. Louis police gambling squad, and Capt. Phil K. Moeller, head of the St. Louis county sheriff's office gambling squad, to discuss the situation.

In a story by Theodore C. Link, the newspaper said the total bet in St. Louis, St. Louis County and the nearby Illinois area is about $500,000, giving operators a 10 per cent return of $50,000, of which $25,000 goes to Wortman and Dowling.

Wortman in 1933 was sentenced to 10 years for beating a prohibition agent. Dowling was sentenced to a Missouri reformatory at the age of 17.

Baseball betting has increased sharply, the newspaper said, as horse race betting has declined.

Wortman and Dowling, the Post-Dispatch reported, offer other services for their 50 per cent cut on profits in addition to providing a centralized information bureau on betting odds.

List "Services"

The newspaper listed under this service such items as reports on physical condition of starting pitchers, whether any star players will be out of the game and other factors which might effect the outcome.

Wortman and Dowling, the newspaper reported, have been trying to persuade gambling operators to move into St. Louis County, saying "there will be a field day" while the county undergoes transition.

Caterpillars Dining on City Shrubs

BALTIMORE (AP)—Thousands of fuzzy, black-eyed caterpillars who are slowed but not stopped by sprays are causing a clamor among the residents of the 400 block of Dale Avenue.

That is the block the caterpillars apparently have chosen for their favorite. They munch on rose bushes, shrubs and tree leaves. Residents coming home at night say they can't get in without stepping on them.

County Health Officer Dr. William Warthen said the caterpillars are not dangerous and there is "no possible cause for alarm."

But Mrs. Elsie Cecil, who lives in the block, said "I don't even want to live here anymore."

Adlai Won't Be Drafted, Says Butler

Kansas City (AP)—The head of the Democratic National Committee says Adlai Stevenson will have to campaign actively if he wants the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

Paul Butler, national party chairman, said Sunday in an interview that Stevenson will have to announce himself prior to the 1956 convention in Chicago.

Butler said Stevenson, former Illinois governor, will not be drafted by the convention in 1956 as he had been in 1952.

Asked if he thought Stevenson would be the nominee again, Butler said:

"I do not know what Mr. Stevenson's plans are at this time but I do know that if he does want the nomination he is going to have to declare himself a candidate and be active in his campaign for it."

Butler was in Kansas City to attend a birthday dinner for former President Harry S. Truman.

Reenlistment Rate a Scandal, Says AF General

RANTOUL, Ill. (AP)—The commandant of Chanute Air Force Base says the re-enlistment rate "is almost a national scandal" and blames it on the Air Force's inability to take care of family life.

In an address at the Illinois convention of the Reserve Officers' Assn. Saturday, Maj. Gen. B. E. Gates said:

"We are strong militarily, but we are weak in the business of providing a living environment for the families on which our military strength depends."

Gen. Gates said many of the enlisted men's personal problems have been eased by the voluntary efforts of base personnel and community leaders.

"The people of the Air Force are asking, not for more money, but for a decent way of life for their families," he said.

"We have tried to find the answer here. For the nation's sake, the entire Air Force had better find it."

She's 103

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Mrs. Flora Witt entered her 103rd year today. She attributed her long life to faith in God, a devoted daughter and a good doctor.

More than 19,000,000 of Michigan's 38,500,000 acres are classified as forest lands.

Rita Jane Weller, Donald Blumeyer Wed on Saturday

Saturday's bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Weller, Rt. 2, Oregon, and the bridegroom's parents are the A. B. Blumeyers, Oregon. Rev. The bride was lovely in a blue linen suit with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Faust in Weller, Mt. Morris, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a navy linen suit. Her accessories were white and her flowers, pink carnations.

Believe Burglaries Solved

The wave of apartment and farm house burglaries that occurred in Dixon and Lee county during the last few days in April apparently has been solved, according to local authorities.

Two brothers, Neville D., 21, and Joseph C. Anderson, 19, Louisville, Ky., were sentenced April 29 in Dubuque, Ia., Federal court, to three years each in the federal penitentiary at Terre Haute, Ind., for interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

The stolen car they admitted driving, a 1935 two-toned Buick with Kentucky license plates, was found wrecked and abandoned near Anamosa, Ia. The authorities found various burglary loot in the car—part of which has been positively identified as taken from Lee county.

Sheriff John Stouffer and Chief of Police Earl Kelchner, who accompanied Carroll County Deputy Sheriff Harry Miller to Anamosa Saturday, said that Charles Hey, Dixon, has positively identified a pair of shoes stolen from his second floor apartment April 27 and Charles Williams, rural Sublette, has identified a gold watch taken from his farm home April 28.

Also found in the wrecked car was a rose-colored bedspread, believed to have been stolen from the Thomas Gorman farm, located near the junction of Rts. 51 and 30 sometime April 28; an Ambony class ring and a pocket knife with "Dixon" stamped on it.

The two-toned Buick with a white bottom and a light green top also matched the description given by several Lee county residents who reportedly saw the vehicle parked at the three farm homes that were burglarized.

Alaska, Hawaii Statehood Up For House Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in the long fight over statehood, the house today gets to vote whether it will consider a bill to admit both Alaska and Hawaii as states.

Before voting on statehood itself, the house must decide first whether to consider the bill under rules limiting debate and barring amendments. You could get an argument either way as to the outcome.

Unofficial reports—by statehood supporters—say membership polls by house Democratic and Republican organizations indicate a majority will support the combined bill if it comes to a vote. But they concede it will be close.

As a result, the big fight is likely to come today with opponents seeking to block the bill's consideration. Such a move could draw support not only from those opposed to admitting either territory, but also from supporters who disapprove the no-amendment procedure under which the rules committee approved bringing the bill to the floor.

Should statehood supporters successfully pass the hurdle, the bill itself would come up for seven hours debate. A final vote would come tomorrow.

They're Checking the Speed Checker

HERE'S BAD NEWS FOR SPEEDERS. Dixon Police Capt. J. E. Van Meter (left) and Officer Glen Camery gave Dixon's new electric speed checker its first "field test" Saturday afternoon on N. Galena Ave. Police Chief Earl Kelchner said that the department will continue to make arrest-free demonstrations this week. Starting Monday, May 16, speed violators will be arrested, Kelchner added. Schrock (with derby), were on hand for the demonstration.

Big 3 Awaits Word From Ike

PARIS (AP)—The Big Three foreign ministers awaited word today from President Eisenhower on a proposal for a meeting "at the summit" with Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin in Switzerland next July.

Spokesmen for the British, who with the French have been pressing for a top level meeting, said Sunday night Secretary of State Dulles had promised to ask Eisenhower for an answer on the proposal within 48 hours.

In Washington, Eisenhower's press aide, Murray Snyder, said he had heard of no communications between Dulles and the President on the subject but that he had not talked to the President during the day.

In recent news conferences, Eisenhower has said he wanted assurances of Russia's sincerity before he would take part in a big power conference.

Here for the North Atlantic Council meeting to welcome West German into NATO, Dulles conferred most of Sunday with British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay on the prospects for Big Four talks and the Austrian independence treaty.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer joined them last night.

This afternoon, in between NATO meetings, the Western Big Three were to take up the situation in South Viet Nam in an effort to pound out a united policy. Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, who weathered an attempt last week to topple his regime, has appealed to the Big Three to reject Chief of State Bao Dai's efforts to reestablish himself in Viet Nam.

American sources said Dulles has no present intention of seeing Bao Dai, who has been here from his French Riviera home Saturday. Bao Dai contacted American embassy officials last week with a request to see Dulles. He also submitted a plan for settling his dispute with Diem.

The blackface minstrel, a "must" in every documentary musical is slated to be one of the top numbers in the show. Several K. C. newcomers to the Dixon stage have been selected for choice parts.

Specialty numbers will include tap dance routines by Eleanor and Nancy Jones and vocal selections by Gwen Giblin, Virginia Sullivan and the "Quad-Wranglers."

Tickets may be purchased at Fazz's TV, Brandt's apparel, Eringer's, Cahill Electric, LaFever's market, Sieg's, James' billiards, Joe and a sporting goods, L. J. Welch Co., Dixon Machine Works, Three Deuces tavern, the Elks club and the K. C. clubrooms.

Cubs Cut Squad

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs baseball team announced today they have optioned rookie catcher Jim Fanning to their Los Angeles club. Fanning of Fanning reduces the club roster to 30.

A self-feeder ration made up of 200 pounds of soybean oil meal and 400 pounds of ground ear corn will contain a total of about 35 per cent of roughage.

The petroleum industry has stopped using chlorinated naphthalenes in oils and greases; as a result hyperkeratosis, or X-disease of cattle, has practically disappeared.

Big 4 Ready To Agree on Austrian Pact

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers were reported ready today to meet here late this week and sign the Austrian independence treaty now being completed by their ambassadors to Vienna.

British informants in Paris, where the three Western ministers are conferring, said Russia has indicated her foreign minister, V. M. Molotov, would see them here about Friday for that purpose.

Accordingly they said, U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay are preparing to fly to this Austrian capital about Thursday.

The Soviet Union gave the word, the informants reported, in response to a Western query sent urgently to Moscow over the weekend. Diplomatic sources had said previously that formal notes would go to Moscow today.

Besides signing the treaty here, the Western foreign ministers also are reported planning to spend two or three days in informal discussion with Molotov of the time, place and scope of a projected summer Big Four conference of heads of governments or foreign ministers, aimed to settle East-West tensions in Europe.

Assault Suspect Hangs Self in Cell

CHICAGO (AP)—A man police said was being held for questioning in connection with assaults on women was found hanged early today.

Police identified the man as Warren McDonald, 32. They said he hanged himself by looping his belt and necktie around the bars in his cell.

McDonald had been arrested Sunday, police said, because he resembled the description of a man who recently had attacked three West side women. One of the women, a 63-year-old school teacher, died shortly after she was assaulted.

Police said several recent assault victims failed to identify McDonald at a show-up Sunday night.

Cubs Drop Church

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs announced today the outright release of Bubba Church, 30-year-old pitcher, to their Los Angeles farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

At the same time the Cubs optioned pitcher Bob Thorpe to Des Moines of the Western League.

Church had pitched only 3½ innings thus far this season and Thorpe had pitched 2½ innings. Each had a 0-0 record.

The cutting off of Church and Thorpe slashed the Cub roster to 31.

Children playing with matches today were blamed by Fire Chief Gail Keyser for starting a rubbish fire at 506 Eells Ave., Dixon, about 4 p.m. Saturday.

He added that Saturday's incident marked the third time this spring that firemen have had to put out fires in that neighborhood—all reportedly started by children playing with matches.

Keyser also said that the firemen were able to keep Saturday's fire from spreading to a 250-gallon gasoline tank located only 10 feet away. The fire caused little damage.

The Question: Pay or Plow?

Some Industry Puts Profits Into Future

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Plans of business firms to step up their spending for new plants and equipment could dash the hopes of some stockholders for more liberal dividend payments.

Prospects for much better corporate profits this year than last have raised these hopes high.

But now a number of companies are saying that the big postwar expansion program may not have been enough after all to meet the growing consumer demand for their products. And new mills and factories are being planned. Keen competition is also speeding plans for buying new equipment.

Debate Revealed

And so the debate of recent years over how much of the earnings should be plowed back into the business and how much handed out to the corporation's owners in dividends may be revived. This comes at a time when most companies have completed their original post war expansion programs and stockholders' mouths were watering in anticipation of more dividend gravy.

Stockholders may have grumbled in the last 10 years because so many companies plowed back such a large percentage of the earnings. But the New York Stock Exchange points out today in the May issue of its magazine, The Exchange, that judged by stock price performance, the plowers seem to have been more popular with stock buyers than were the "payers."

Gives Examples

It cited as examples, in the last 10 years, Bethlehem Steel plowed back 62 per cent of its earnings, but the price of its stock rose 398 3/4 per cent. California Standard Oil plowed back 67 per cent of its earnings, while its stock rose 361 1/4 per cent. Goodyear retained 67 per cent of its earnings, but its stock shot up 335 per cent. Jersey Standard Oil put 57 per cent of its earnings back into its business, but stock buyers bid its shares up 321 1/4 per cent.

The exchange then takes a look at some of the "payers." It cites: Loew's kept only 17 per cent of its earnings in the last 10 years but its stock fell 18 1/2 per cent in market value. American Telephone & Telegraph retained a like percentage and its stock advanced only seven per cent in price. Woolworth paid out in dividends all but 33 per cent of its earnings and its stock rose 23 1/2 per cent. International Harvester retained 2 per cent of earnings; its stock rose 41 1/4 per cent.

Other Factors

The exchange notes, however, that other factors beyond "plowing" vs. "paying" undoubtedly affected stock price movements.

American corporations in general retained many billions of dollars since World War II to help them in financing new plants, buying new equipment, fostering research. Management explained to the shareholders that such expenditures would improve profits in the future.

4 Killed at Lake Geneva

LAKE GENEVA, Wis. (AP)—Four young people were killed and two others were injured critically Sunday in a two-car collision on a curve near here. Walworth county officials said there were no witnesses to the crash but at least one of the vehicles must have been traveling at a high rate of speed. The victims were Kenneth Mitchell, 20, Withee, Wis.; Charles Thompson, 20, and Jerome Pickera, 19, both of Hurley, Wis.; and Robert Vorpapel, 16, Springfield, Wis., taken to a hospital at Elk-horn in critical condition were Carl Golemski, 26, Prairie View, Ill.; and Edward Schenk, 17, Lake Geneva. Authorities said Schenk was riding in a car driven by Vorpapel while others were passengers in the vehicle driven by Pickera.

CLINTON, Iowa (AP)—Dr. John D. Hullinger, 94-year-old Clinton physician, is the proud father of another boy—the second born of his marriage three years ago.

The 10-pound baby, described by the elderly doctor as "feeling fine and looking fit as a fiddle" was born early Sunday to 32-year-old Mrs. Hullinger, who also is doing fine.

The doctor now has brought 3,309 babies into the world during 63 years practice as a country doctor.

Hullinger said his first son, John, Jr., now 22 months old, is in perfect health.

The only thing wrong with the new baby, so far as the parents are concerned, is that he isn't a girl.

Hullinger expressed hope that he "will be around for many more years" to enjoy the companionship of his family.

Dixon Captures District Tennis Crown

Utley, Cushing in Singles Victories Glenn and Bay Runner-up In Tough Doubles Action

ROCKFORD—(Special)—Singles players Henry Utley and Joe Cushing, and the doubles team of Norman Glenn and Bob Bay, won the right to compete in the state tennis tournament at Champaign May 20 as they led to the Dixon high school team to a one-sided district championship here Saturday.

Utley and Cushing finished one-two in the singles action as Henry turned back Joe in a tough three set final match. Glenn and Bay battled their way into the doubles final where they were stopped by Mike Copp and Lou Tangorra of East Rockford.

For Utley, it will be his third trip to state. In the two previous districts, the Dixon senior finished runner-up to Julian Bruening of West Rockford who graduated last year.

Cushing and Glenn will be making their second trip to Champaign. Last year these two won runner-up honors in the district doubles. Cushing this year will be making the jump as a singles player while Glenn repeats in doubles with Bay as his new partner.

Dixon won the district title with 13 points while East Rockford was second with seven.

Utley and Cushing had little trouble moving into the final round. Neither lost a set as they turned back three opponents in reaching the showdown.

In the final match, Utley won the first set, 6-4, but Cushing came back to take the second, 6-2. The Dixon pair battled to a 3-3 deadlock in the first six games of the final set and then Henry, who seemed to have been taking it easy in earlier matches, turned on the power to win going away, 6-3.

Doubles action was heated from the start. Four teams were seeded with Belvidere's defending champions Jim Schultz and Clyde Hill ranked first, Glenn and Bay second, Tangorra and Copp third and Fred Sadevater and Pat Wiske of West Rockford ranked fourth.

Visibly Tiring
Glenn and Bay moved through three sets of opponents in getting to the finals but not without some difficulty. The Dixon duo won their first two matches in straight sets and then ran into Sadevater and Wiske who did much to wear down the Dixon team for the final match. Glenn and Bay won, 11-9, 6-4, 6-4.

Tangorra and Copp, meanwhile, had less trouble with the defending champions, winning 8-6, 6-3.

Glenn and Bay, visibly tiring as the final match progressed, lost the first two games of each of the three sets. They pulled out the first one, 6-3, but then bowed in the final two, 3-6, 2-6.

This was the second time the two doubles teams had met. Earlier in the season, Bay and Glenn won 6-3, 6-4, over this same East duo.

Point Scoring
Utley accounted for four Dixon points while Cushing picked up three. One point was scored for each singles victory. Two points were awarded for a first round doubles victory and one point for each succeeding win. Glenn and Bay contributed four points and John Nelles and Jim Schwitters, Dixon number two doubles team, added two points as they won their first match but bowed to Copp and Tangorra in the quarterfinals.

Mt. Morris and Rochelle each scored two points. Bill Noonkesser and Mike Balluff of the Mounters won their first doubles match. Pete Renich and Jerry Fisher scored two points for Rochelle by winning their first doubles match.

Chisox Take Pair From Detroit

SPORTS
WHAT'S THE SCORE
By Norm Jollow

DIXON'S TENNIS TEAM RACKED UP the district tennis title Saturday. It was the first time since 1946 that the Dukes had been able to put together enough power to head off the vaunted Rockford clubs.

But they did it Saturday and in rather convincing fashion, 13 points to seven points for second place East Rockford. West Rockford, defending champion, was dumped to third place with only five points. The absence of Julian Bruening obviously was hard felt by the Warriors.

DIXON'S SINGLES STRENGTH was apparent in several ways. In the first place, none of the major teams in the tournament regarded their chances good enough in singles to send any of their top men into the final.

East Rockford's top duo of Lou Tangorra and Mike Copp were sent into the doubles section which proved to be a good move since this pair won the title. Belvidere used Jim Schultz and Clyde Hill in the doubles. This was natural, however, since they were defending champions. However, the pair were Belvidere's one and two men.

FRED SADEVATER AND PAT WISKE are West Rockford's top singles men, but they, too, were used as a doubles team. All of this made it easier for Utley and Cushing to move into the final.

REPORTS FROM ROCKFORD INDICATED that Henry Utley was not too sharp in his first three matches against lesser opposition. But it is believed that he was saving himself for the finals where he knew that Cushing was good enough to beat him if he let up. As it was, Cushing pushed Henry to three sets and was tied at 3-3 in the final set.

FOR THE DOUBLES TEAM or Norman Glenn and Bob Bay, it apparently was a case of too much tennis in too short a time. Coach Paul Hamersmith reported that the duo played good tennis against West Rockford but were still at it 45 minutes after East Rockford's pair had won the right to enter the finals.

The state tournament will start at 9 a. m. Friday, May 20. Hamersmith reported that the team would travel to Champaign Thursday, May 19, to be in time for the drawing at 8 p. m. The tournament will continue through Saturday, May 21.

Dixon Graders Lose 2 Meets

STERLING—(Special)—Sterling's grade school track teams had power to burn here Saturday as they won the eighth grade meet from Dixon, 62-38, and the seventh grade meet, 91-7, to 81-3.

Chuck Brainard paced Dixon in the eighth grade meet as he won the 50 yard dash in .61 and the 220 yard dash in .26.5. He also finished second in the discus.

Dick Bryan was second in the 70 yard low hurdles; Ed Long was second in the pole vault; Bob Varga was third in the high jump, and Kirby Holland was third in the shot put. The 440 yard relay team of Brainard, Varga, Anderson and Bross won.

In the seventh grade meet, Dixon failed to get a first. Dick Hess was second in the 50 yard dash. Jack Gower was third in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and tied for third in the high jump; Jack Bodmer was third in the 440 yard run and the 70 yard low hurdles and Eddie Struhs was third in the discus.

Cleveland Still Hammering Lower Clubs

By the Associated Press

Maybe, as Al Lopez stoutly maintains, Cleveland will not equal its record 111 victories of last year but the wily manager cannot deny that his Indians are adopting the same formula that brought them the American league championship in 1954.

Cleveland won the flag by holding the top clubs even and belaboring the weaker clubs. The Indians are atop the standings today because they are doing the same thing again.

Sunday's 9-6 and 2-1 sweep of a doubleheader with Kansas City gave Cleveland 11 victories against only two defeats against the four second division clubs. That's an 847 gait.

Against the first division clubs Cleveland is only 6-5 for .545.

Sox Win Pair
The Yankees and White Sox stayed within two games of the Tribe, in a second place deadlock. The Yankees polished off Willard Nixon, who had beaten them six straight times over a two-year span, 5-0 behind Bob Grim.

The White Sox won a pair from Detroit 5-4 in 11 innings and 1-0 to plunge the Tigers from first to fourth. After Baltimore had nipped Washington 4-3 with two runs in the ninth inning, the Senators bounced back to pound out a 15-7 second game triumph.

Brooklyn's relentless Dodgers defeated the fading Philadelphia Phillies 9-5 for their 21st victory in 23 starts as they racked up their second 10-game winning streak in less than a month. Their nearest pursuer is Milwaukee, 9½ games behind. The Braves took undisputed possession of second place by defeating St. Louis 6-2 as the New York Giants split, winning the second game 6-3 after Pittsburgh won the opener 7-5.

Cubs Split
The home run was the decisive factor in the Chicago-Cincinnati split. The Cubs won the opener 5-3 on four batters by Randy Jackson and rookie Bob Speake. The Redlegs took the second game 4-3 on Hobbie Landrith's ninth inning homer.

Little Nellie Fox singled in the winning run in Chicago's first game victory over Detroit and accounted for the lone run in the turf classic. Time for the mile and one-quarter of the $152,500 race was two minutes, one and four-fifths seconds, just two-fifths of a second off the track and Derby record set by Whirlaway in 1911.

Ellsworth and trainer Tenney, close friends since childhood, shipped Swaps Sunday to Hollywood Park in California, where the colt's next big engagement will be in the $50,000 added Westerner on July 9. The Westerner is at the same distance as the Derby.

"Our 1956 Derby candidate is Like Magic, a full brother of Swaps," said Ellsworth. "He's a great big old colt with something to learn but we think he is a better horse than Swaps."

Ellsworth and Tenney, who breed horses on their 300-acre farm at Ontario, Calif., and have another 250,000 acres of range land in Arizona, didn't enter Swaps in either the Preakness or the Belmont Stakes. They didn't think he was good enough. The Preakness will be run May 28 and the Belmont June 11.

Most of the other Derby horses also were on their way to other tracks. Nashua, beaten a length and a half, was the first to leave. The big bay from William Woodward's Belair Stud entrained for

Sheely Scores Only Dixon Points; Sterling Wins Title

Jimmy Bowers Falls 3-10th of Second Short of State Record in Fast Mile Run

DEKALB—(Special)—Nine records were broken including Jimmy Bowers' latest assault on the state mile record here Saturday and Sterling's Golden Warriors took home another first place prize for their track trophy case.

Dixon's Dukes again suffered from a lack of depth, scoring just two points when Ken Sheely finished fourth in the discus in the fourth DeKalb relay.

Rochelle, paced by Bob Bjorneby who set a record in the pole vault, racked up 15 points to take ninth place; Oregon collected 11½ points for 11th place; Mt. Morris had five points for 13th place and Byron joined Dixon in a tie for 15th place with 2 points.

Bowers, clocked at 4:23.4, was just three-tenths of a second off the state mile record of 4:23.1. The 1954 state mile champion, like other competitors, was alternately helped and hindered by cold, wind and rain. His old DeKalb relay mark was 4:36.6, set last year.

Roger Hill of Rochelle gave Bowers some help by chasing the DeKalb miler around the track. Hill took second and was clocked at 4:39.

New Records
Sterling racked up 37½ points to finish 20 points ahead of Mendota which scored a surprising second with 37 points. DeKalb was a hair away with 36½ points for third place followed by Freeport with 26½ points and Palatine with 19½ points. Ottawa and Rock Falls tied for sixth place with 17 points.

Bjorneby added 2½ inches to the pole vault standard set by Rasmusen of DeKalb in 1952. The old mark was 11'6" but Bjorneby raised it to 11'8½".

Norm Ehlers of Mendota added better than 10 feet to the discus mark with a throw of 155'11½". The old record was set by Meek of Hall in 1952 at 145'4".

Dan Anderson of DeKalb bettered the shot put mark with a 52'1½" heave to eclipse the 51'2½" standard set by Sterling's Tusi Tualili in 1954.

Clark of Sterling, Johnson of DeKalb and Lang of Freeport tied for the high jump record. They cleared 6'3½" to snap the 5'11" set by Sammy Mylin of Sterling and Jerry Babb of Barrington last year.

Gasser Best
Ken Miller of DeKalb leaped past the broad jump mark set by Roger Severson of DeKalb in 1952 at 21'9½". Miller's winning leap was measured at 21'11½".

New records also were set by Sterling's 320 yard high hurdle relay team; Freeport's mile medley relay and DeKalb's two mile medley relay team with Bowers running the mile anchor.

Top performance for Dixon was Rudy Gasser in the mile medley. Coach Art Bowers clocked the Dixon 880 yard runner at 2:04.2, his best time this season and fourth best in the district.

Area Scoring
Rochelle picked up its points from Bjorneby's first in the pole vault; Ron Hill's fourth in the shot and second in the discus; Roger Hill's third in the mile, and Dave Proff's part in a six way tie for third in the pole vault.

Oregon got its 11½ points when Bob Reidesel was fourth in the 100; Harry Beauchem was third in the mile; Cleaver was tied for fifth in the high jump and the 880 yard relay team of Reidesel, Dick Haas, Orville Johnson and Jim Robson was fourth in the 380 yard relay.

Mt. Morris picked up its five points when its mile medley relay team tied for third.

Marvin Dennis, running fourth in the mile, scored Byron's two points.

Owners Rate Next Year's Entry Better Than Swaps

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Rex Ellsworth and Meshach (Mickey) Tenney, a couple of wiry ex-cowpunchers from the West, will return next year in quest of their second straight Kentucky Derby victory with a horse they rate better than Swaps.

And that is saying a lot for Swaps whipped the mighty Nashua and eight other 3-year-olds last Saturday in one of the fastest Derbies in the 81-year history of the turf classic. Time for the mile and one-quarter of the $152,500 race was two minutes, one and four-fifths seconds, just two-fifths of a second off the track and Derby record set by Whirlaway in 1911.

Truman Library Is Begun

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (U)—A jovial Harry S. Truman did a bit of digging Sunday—his 71st birthday anniversary—on a project that's been closest to his heart since leaving the White House.

The former President used a couple of shovels, both gold plated, to make an official ground-breaking start on the Truman Memorial Library.

It will be a $1,750,000 structure housing the official and personal papers he collected during more than seven years as President.

Dr. Elmer Ellis, University of Missouri president who was the principal speaker at the ceremonies, called the Truman papers the core of an expanded library and museum of items and relics "which in the next 100 years will come to light as bearing in important ways on President Truman's career."

Publicly Financed

Three quarters of the cost of the library, being financed by public contributions, has been raised.

At a birthday dinner attended by more than 500 persons Sunday night Truman called the memorial "the thing dearest to my heart" and expressed gratitude to the thousands who have made it possible.

Dr. Franklin Murphy, the University of Kansas chancellor, told the dinner audience the library "will put into perspective this complex part of a complex century."

He turned to Truman and said the papers "will stand forever as a permanent living example of your notable efforts to have men cease to be wolves to one another so that humanity may be given even fresher and fuller meaning."

The former President, who underwent a serious gall bladder and appendix operation last summer, was spry and appeared fit.

Shows Up Early

He showed up at the ground-break ceremonies 25 minutes early, chatted and shook hands with the educators, national political figures and home town friends in the crowd.

He also had Mrs. Truman and their daughter Margaret take turns at spading on the library site.

The site is in Slover Park, six blocks from the Trumans' Independence home.

Edwin Pauley, California oilman who served as assistant to the secretary of the army under Truman in 1946, said the University of California at Los Angeles offered to pay the full cost of the library and give Truman an estate if he would locate the building at the university.

Pauley, in an interview, said Truman declined on the ground his roots were in Independence and that's where he felt the library should be.

Pilot Stays With Plane, Survives Crash

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (U)—In order to give the other 14 men aboard a chance to parachute, an Ohio Air National Guard pilot stayed with his C47 plane until it crashed in the Belmont County hills Sunday night.

The pilot survived, along with three others who elected to stay or were unable to jump in time, suffering relatively minor or no injuries.

One of 11 men who parachuted was killed.

He was identified as Sgt. Thurl W. Starcher, 46, New Philadelphia. Five others are in Barnesville, Ohio, General Hospital, none of them injured seriously.

The plane was carrying 11 members of the all-Ohio National Guard rifle team on a return flight from Friendship Airport, Baltimore.

Engine failure was blamed for the crash.

Col. D. E. Shafer Jr., group commander of the 121st Fighter Group at Dayton, said the pilot, Maj. Charles C. Cook, 30, of Dayton, stayed with the plane and kept it gliding so the others would have a chance to parachute.

The men aboard bailed out until the plane was too low for them to jump safely, Col. Shafer said.

Orson Wells Weds Actress

LONDON (U)—Orson Welles, one-time boy wonder of the American theater, honeymooned today with his new bride. She is dark-haired Countess Di Girolamo, an Italian actress better known as Paolina Mori.

Welles, 40 Friday, was wed to the 24-year-old starlet Sunday in an early morning ceremony at London's Caxton Hall Registry. British producer Peter Brook and his wife were the witnesses.

The couple kept their honeymoon destination secret.

It was Welles' third marriage and the Countess' first. The showman married Virginia Nicholson in 1934 and movie star Rita Hayworth in 1943.

Tariff Problem Complex; Policies Hurt, Help U.S.

Foreign Trade and Its Impact on Our Industry

EDITOR'S NOTE: Pros and cons over what kind of tariff laws the United States should adopt for regulation of foreign trade in this country reflect complex and widely varied motives and opinions. Here, in the first of five stories, are some samples by a reporter who observed them first hand.

By STERLING F. GREEN

PADEN CITY, W. Va. (U)—The vital, complex fight over the nation's tariff laws gets down to bread and butter terms in two different kinds of signs you see along the Ohio River these days.

Along the river highway outside of Padon City, there's a sign advertising 80,000 square feet of factory space for sale or lease. This is the epitaph of a 40-year-old glass company which gave up four years ago because of low-wage Japanese competition in table glassware. About 450 of the town's 2,500 people lost their jobs.

Now, follow the same river west, around the southern bulge of Ohio, until you reach Evansville, Ind. Here you see help wanted signs. Here, the town is booming partially because of foreign trade.

Reflect the Stakes
The two kinds of signs reflect many of the grass roots stakes in the fight just now ending in Washington. Last week, the Senate passed the bill empowering President Eisenhower to cut U.S. tariffs to spur world commerce.

This week the Senate and House try to agree in conference on a final bill. Behind these last efforts stretches a long complicated debate involving basic dilemmas such as these:

If friendly foreign nations are to improve their economies and thus become less vulnerable to communism, they will have to sell us more. But if they sell more here, some U.S. industries will sell less. How do you protect or help those industries?

Some "Sicker"
In a generally healthy national economy, some "sick" U.S. industries have been made sicker by foreign competition. How, if you reduce tariffs further, do you avoid making the illness fatal?

If we're going to sell more abroad foreigners will have to get the purchasing power by selling more here. But while various surveys show that the American economy is helped more by increased foreign buying here than it is hurt by foreign selling here, that still doesn't make the wounded minority feel any better. What can be done for them?

These are the broad outlines of the problem. To understand it in human terms, let's return to the signs along the Ohio River.

In Padon City, the sign for the defunct glass works is symptomatic of the troubles plaguing many of the glassware and pottery factories in this northernmost corner of West Virginia. Some have shut down completely. Others are working part-time. Unemployment has been running from 8 to 14 per cent in this part of the state.

Voted Against
Rep. Robert H. Mollohan (D), who represents the area and voted against the administration bill authorizing a gradual, three-year lowering of tariffs, says the bill could mean that glass and pottery will be "practically wiped out as a domestic industry."

Next to the dark glass works is the Padon City Pottery Co., the town's sole surviving employer of any importance. "Before Japan," as they put it here, the pottery firm employed 850 men and women. Now it employs 475, two or three days a week.

M. C. Sondles, president of the firm, held up a plate, saying: "Pretend this represents one dollar of production cost. This third is materials, the other two-thirds is labor cost. Out of our cost-dollar, 66% cents is labor. In Japan labor would amount to less than seven cents.

"So if they paid exactly what we do for materials, it costs them 40 cents to make what costs us a dollar."

Draw Compensation
What became of the glass workers and laid-off pottery employees? In town, the tradespeople report that the laid-off workers draw unemployment compensation while it lasts. The younger ones take work elsewhere and move.

The U.S. Pottery Assn. once had 43 members. Now it has 31, of which 23 make earthenware, the rest, china. The 23 earned a total of $4,150,000 in 1947. Last year, largely because of foreign competition, they had a combined loss of $1,100,000.

This was reported by Joseph M. Wells, secretary-treasurer of the Homer Laughlin Co., at Newell one of the world's largest producers of fine table earthenware. His own firm, he said, once employed 2,800; now it is "25 to 30 per cent down in production and jobs, and about 80 per cent in earnings."

In the chinaware trade, Wells estimated, foreign producers now command about four-fifths of the U. S. market.

Then Marbles
And then there is the marbles industry. Six of the seven U. S. companies which make marbles are in West Virginia.

Roger W. Howdysheyl of St. Mary's told the House Ways and Means Committee the Japanese will soon put the United States marbles industry out of business unless Congress helps.

But the picture brightens as you go west on the Ohio River. Let's stop at Evansville and Indiana's 8th Congressional District, represented by Winkfield K. Denton.

Next: Industrial fever chart

uary-March period than a year earlier, suggesting the possibility that a moderate decline in the cattle inventory might be starting. But cattle feeding is at a record volume at present.

"Under influence of large marketings, prices of fed cattle will average lower the rest of the spring than in February to April," the department said. "A seasonal strengthening is likely later in the summer. Prices of cattle off grass will likely decline seasonally during the summer."

Rodney Brodie Better, Sees His Parents

CHICAGO (U)—Rodney Dee Brodie has taken a turn for the better, but still is listed in critical condition at Illinois Research Hospital. The 3½-year-old boy—first head-injured Siamese twin to survive separation—came out of a 51-hour coma Sunday. Rodney's eye flitted happily over the faces of his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Royt Brodie who visited at the hospital on Mother's Day.

Rodney, seemingly well on his way toward a normal life after separation from his twin 29 months ago, was returned to the hospital Tuesday with a deep, mysterious bleeding in his brain.

A hospital spokesman said Rodney was resting comfortably but that doctors could not tell for certain whether the brain hemorrhage had stopped.

Rodney Dee was separated from his brother, Roger Lee, in a 12-hour operation Dec. 17, 1952. Roger died 34 days later.

"What's that?" "Crackpot," replied the boy.

LINCOLN LANES CHAMPIONSHIP

Captains of the winning teams at Lincoln Lanes should note all their members to be present tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 7:30 sharp, at the lanes to have their pictures taken for the page of champions.

We attended the Reynolds Wire League bowling banquet at the Landmark Saturday evening and managed to get away with a big enough steak for a family, but still most of the food was left over. Zael Spinden acted as master of ceremonies and introduced General Manager Bill Harsbuer, Personnel Manager Roger Anderson, Treasurer Harold Rorer, Bill McConnell, Ken Detweiler, Flash Fordham and himself.

In his talk Manager Harsbuer expressed appreciation for the morale that the bowling league has built up, and the good fellowship it has created between the management and the employees. Personally we think the Wire Mill is fortunate to have executives such as Roger Anderson, who formed the league, Manager Harsbuer, Supt. Spinden and Treasurer Rorer have been excellent. A collection was taken for flowers for Bob Connolly, injured recently, who was captain of the prize winning team. Plans were made for another league next year.

In the City tournament, Lawton's Dairy held their first place with 3013; Ten Pin

Topplers were second with 2981 and Roy Roberts, third, 2891. A complete list of the prize winners will be published at the end of the tournament.

Loses Daughter; Cops Return Her

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—A policeman halted motorist Floyd Robinson Sunday on a Topeka street and asked:

"Did you lose something?" Robinson, of Eskridge, Kan., looked around. His 10-year-old daughter Shirley Ann was missing.

A patrol car picked up Shirley Ann at the service station a mile away and returned her to her father.

German Air Chief Quit 10 Years Ago

By A. I. GOLDBERG
AP Staff Writer

A judgy man in a green-gray flying coat stepped out of an armored sedan, drew on white gloves and stood for a moment at the entrance of the Grand Hotel in Kitzbuehel, Austria.

An American general moved up and said, "This way."

Reichsmarshal Herman Goering, wearing only four of his hundreds of medals, moved up the steps. On the second floor Maj. Gen. John Dahlquist, then commander of the 36th Texas division (now a lieutenant general and head of U. S. Army ground forces in the United States), was waiting. Two reporters were there, too, that May 8, 1945.

Brig. Gen. Robert Stack of Schenectady, N. Y., assistant commander of the 36th, introduced Goering to Dahlquist and the surrender of one of Nazism's chief architects was complete. Stack had gone through the German lines to Fischhorn Castle in Eastern Austria to accept Goering's offered surrender, the night before.

A correspondent asked Goering: "Why do you really think Germany lost the war?"

Goering's reply: "We misjudged American industrial capacity. We never thought it could turn out the guns, tanks, ships, planes, ammunition—everything it takes to fight a war—before we could win."

Goering insisted he be flown immediately to Paris "to talk to Eisenhower." But his captors stuffed him into a Piper cub plane and flew him to Augsburg, U. S. 7th Army headquarters.

He later was tried at Nuernberg as a war criminal, and sentenced to hang. He escaped the noose by swallowing poison.

Hal Boyle's Almanac Full Of Oddities

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Leaves from an oddity almanac:

The century of the common man has also turned out to be the century of the common dog.

A thoughtful men's clothing firm has just installed a "dog bar" in its storefront—the first, so far as we know, on Fifth Avenue. As yet the bar only offers water as refreshment for thirsty wayfarers, but all Manhattan is waiting to see what happens when the first gentlemanly St. Bernard shows up with a small cask of bandy under his chin.

A new form of animal crackers is now on the market to lease Rover's appetite. They are dog biscuits colored and shaped to represent different foods, such as a red heart for meat, a brown bone, a white milk bottle, an orange wedge for cheese, and a green fish. Presumably it would be in bad taste to offer Rover a cat-shaped dog biscuit. It might stir him up emotionally.

The changing homefront: A new Mrs. America will be picked this week at Ellinor Village, Fla. . . . A survey of the 50,000 original entrants showed that scrubbing floors was the household chore they despised most. . . . That cherry pie is replacing apple pie in popularity. . . . That some 40 per cent were nominated for the title of America's top housewife by proud husbands or chivalrous mothers-in-law. . . . Which brings up a point: Why doesn't someone run a contest to pick the nation's best all-around mother-in-law?

It has been another heartening year for American can openers. . . . They snipped through 4 million miles of tin-coated steel, a distance equal to (let's see) more than eight round trips to the moon. . . . Some 66,591 cans are opened every minute, about 788 a year in the average home. . . . More than 3,000 edible and non-edible items are packed in cans today. . . .

Incidentally, have you ever thought of canning your money? Stored in cans kept in a dark cool place, money will stay fresh indefinitely. . . . Its value, however, may evaporate somewhat over a long period of time.

Things-you-ought-to-know Dept.: An insurance survey shows that starting salaries offered high-quality college graduates this year are up $10 to $15 a month over a year ago. . . . A number of restaurants now print prayers on their menus, and an enterprising firm is also putting out "grace napkins" for the home embellished with prayers of thanks in the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths.

Coming from the sublime to the meticulous, have you been fretting about the actual measurements of Gina Lollobrigida? . . . The buxomy Italian actress reportedly has shared this secret only with her dressmaker. . . . But word from Rome is that she finally consented to be taped, and for all who care about such matters here are the results: Bust, 37 inches; waist, 21; hips 35 1/2.

The Statue of Liberty, whose hip and bust measurements have never been revealed to a palpitating world, has a 35-foot waist. . . . She is 111-foot-1-inch tall, and she has a fingernail 13 inches long and 10 inches wide. . . . The length of Miss Lollobrigida's fingernails varies, presumably depending on the success of her last picture.

Bowling Champ Killed in Crash

LEXINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Frank Grgurich, 35, of Taylorville, Ill., was killed in an automobile collision Sunday night as he was returning home from Chicago, where he had just won $1,200 in a bowling tournament.

Five persons were injured in the collision, including three other bowlers in the car with Grgurich. The driver of the car in which Grgurich was a passenger, John Babbich of Hewittville, Ill., was held under $2,500 bond at McLean County jail in Bloomington on a charge of failure to yield the right of way. Babbich suffered a leg injury.

Herman J. Wood, 32, of Tower Hill, Ill., the driver of the other car, suffered face and head injuries.

Body of Rockford Man Found in Lake

CHICAGO (AP)—The body of a Rockford, Ill., man has been recovered from Lake Michigan.

Coast Guardsmen Sunday identified the body as that of Oscar M. Meyers, 55, of 3022 Tenth St., Rockford. They said the body had been in the water a long time.

The Boss of Fabulous King Ranch Is Dead

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Richard M. Kleberg Sr., cowboy and congressman, was a Texan in the grand manner, a giant in the storied tradition of the ranch country.

He died Sunday at 68 in Hot Springs, Ark., a victim of a heart attack. Kleberg was chairman of the board of the 1,250,000-acre King Ranch, an empire of cattle and horses, oil and cotton. He was a grandson of Richard King, the founder.

"Mr. Dick"

Even casual acquaintances called him "Mr. Dick," charmed by his easy democratic manner. A tall, dark-haired, striking man, he loved a crowd and the crowd usually came to "Mr. Dick," his friends said.

"He was an able man," said John E. Lyle today, "a good man, a gentleman. He served his country well." It was Lyle who unseated Kleberg in 1944 after the latter's 13 years in Congress.

Kleberg and his brother Robert expanded and brought to national prominence the big ranch. They developed breeds of cattle and dogs, worked with thoroughbred horse development and brought the King Ranch stables to the top of the racing world with such horses as Assault and Styxie.

Richard wrote some of the early New Deal farm legislation and sponsored it through Congress. He was a leader in cotton and cattle organizations and was a devotee of wildlife conservation.

Supported FDR

Although he went to Congress a staunch supporter of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the New Deal, he supported Republican presidential candidates after the Supreme Court controversy and FDR's third-term bid. He raced cowhorses and thoroughbreds on the great ranch before World War I. He became, in the family tradition, an expert marksman, horseman and outdoorsman at an early age and until past middle life was an active rodeo participant. He roped and rode with the best King Ranch vaqueros.

He loved and sought competition but the failing heart which finally ended his career had curtailed his activities in recent years. He was stricken in a Hot Springs hotel where he frequently vacationed. The body was returned here Sunday in his private plane in which he had flown to Hot Springs Friday.

The average length of life for Americans has increased by 30 years since 1850.
